

Meet our 2018-19 Youth Action Advisory Board Members!

Name:	Hometown:	Why YAAB?	Something most people don't know about me is...
Eileen Mullen	Topsfield	I truly want to a part of the change I see in my community because it must start somewhere and waiting to see where it will start will only prolong the process. YAAB gives me and my peers an opportunity to create change.	I love the Celtics.
Ian Swanson	Boxford	To help make the community a safer place for the youth and to educate the youth about the risks of the possible dangers.	I have never been a victim of substance abuse despite most of my co-workers using nicotine products on the job to manage stress and to make the jobs a little easier.
Katie Bernard	Middleton	Helping the community is very important to me and I believe in promoting a healthy lifestyle for youth in the tri-town.	Something most people don't know about me: I enjoy hiking and am in the process of hiking all the 4K footers in New Hampshire.
Sarah Aylwin	Topsfield	I wanted to join YAAB because I wanted to help make a difference in the tri-town.	I am a gymnast and I have done gymnastics for about 10 years.
Justin Crosby		The world has an incredible amount of untapped potential, and as people living in this world, it is our duty to help tap into it. So many bad things still go on today and it is our obligation to help others -- it is our duty to be part of the goodness of this world. YAAB serves as a medium for youth to do such things through combatting the bad and adding to the good on a daily basis -- teaching us that the key to kindness is by educating and communicating.	I hope to be a politician someday.
Nate Hubley	Middleton	I joined YAAB for the leadership opportunities it offered and for the betterment of the tri-town. I am eager to involve myself in the community and to work on various projects over the school year.	One thing people don't know about me is how much I actually love dogs but I don't have one! I'm a 2nd degree black belt in Taekwondo.

Marshall Lastes	Boxford	I joined YAAB to make life in the tri-town fun and enjoyable for youth. I have always enjoyed helping others and YAAB has allowed me to continue to do that.	I am an only child.
Nikki Perry	Middleton	It's a great way to get involved and do something good for the community.	I have a very big collection of funky socks.
Bianca Paiva	Middleton	I joined YAAB because I wanted to make a difference in the community and wanted to help spread awareness of what the community can do to improve their health and way of living.	I'm bilingual.
Lindsay Patterson	Boxford	I love coming together with people for a great cause.	I love cities.
Sara Rave	Boxford	I want to make a difference in the tri-town. I also want my voice to be heard and work with other people to make the tri-town the best it could be.	I can speak Spanish.
Natasha Poritsky	Boxford	I joined YAAB to bring people together and make a difference in the community.	I have been working since I was 6 years old and working for my dad. I worked on a food truck with my family.
Emily Coughlin	Boxford	I want to make a change in the tri-town.	I like to ski.
Emma Quirk	Middleton	I joined YAAB because I want to help kids and teen in my community. I want to help educate everyone on the issues we are facing. I love that YAAB focuses on the things that are going well for the tri-town as well as what we need to improve on.	I have coached Special Olympics gymnastics at Yellow Jackets since I was 8 years old.
